NEWS RELEASE

2011 Carroll County Teacher of the Year

(October 15, 2009) The Carroll County Board of Education hosted a reception on October 15th to honor their 2011 Teacher of the Year nominees. Each school was represented with a Teacher of the Year for their respective school and all were introduced by Assistant Superintendent Martha Shade with admiration and dedication for his/her teaching profession. Superintendent Zauner congratulated and presented certificates of recognition to each nominee.

Dr. Sheila Reed of Bowdon High School was selected as the 2011 Carroll County Teacher of the Year. Alternates for Teacher of the Year are Ms. Nancy Monroe from Mt. Zion High School and Mrs. Monica Smith from Central High School.

Each Teacher of the Year nominee was presented with a silver plated clock given by each principal. The Teacher of the Year finalists and winner received a plaque from Bank of North Georgia and monetary gifts. J&R Construction presented the winner also with a monetary gift. Southwire sponsored the reception to honor the nominees and their families. Other sponsors included First National Bank, Chick-fil-A, Tanner Health System and Edible Arrangements, Douglassville Georgia.
